The Woodlands Arts Council welcomes you to this year's Student Art Scholarship, and Exhibition. We wanted to offer the opportunity for you to exhibit your work and offer financial assistance towards your higher education through the Arts. By reading and signing this form, you as the student are granting that you agree to the honor code given to you. It is important to note that if you are found guilty of plagiarism, your scholarship will be revoked and returned to The Woodlands Arts Council.

What is Plagiarism?

- The stealing or copying of another person's work or words and passing them off as your own.

What is an Honor Code?

- A system of regulations from an academic setting that constitute honorable behavior and actions.

What is unauthorized aid?

- Purposely assisting one another within a given assignment. This could be done by providing information regarding the assignment. Or by providing another student with already completed work, that was done prior to the assignment given.

What is Academic Integrity?

- Values and acts that include the avoidance of plagiarism but instead have the acts of honesty.

Students Originality Statement:

As the student named above, I confirm that this entry was created by me as my original design. By signing this I am claiming that I did not give nor receive any unauthorized aid during the duration of this project. After signing, if I am found guilty of receiving or giving any unauthorized aid, my scholarship will be revoked.
